PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

by Dan Abbott

Welcome to summer! Where has this year (now half over) gone? The 29th Annual Balboa Island Parade was the best ever, with over 97 entrants.

Jack Callahan & Gail Vasterling did a simply fabulous job once again. The attendance was also one of the biggest ever. By the time you are reading this message, the Annual Pancake Breakfast (held at the Beek Center Park) on June 22 from 8-10:00 AM will also be a thing of the past.

The Classical Concerts continue through the end of the year with concerts coming up July 16 and October 22., both at 7 PM. Coordinated by Penny Rodheim and moderated by Jack Callahan they are held in the church on Marine Avenue. Following the presentations is a reception at the Balboa Island Museum including an appearance of the performers and wine and refreshments for those in attendance.

The Summer Concerts in the Park (at the Beek Center Park on Agate by the ferry entrance) are held at 6:00 PM every Friday in August. These have become very popular so come early and put out your lawn chairs and bring refreshments and dancing shoes, as the bands are spectacular!

The BIIA is an all volunteer organization comprised of Island residents. The BIIA strives to promote the Island's beauty (enjoy the new FRESH flowers on the bridge coming onto the Island), enhances the Island's safety and generally promotes the overall quality and enjoyment of our Island lives. The Board meets the last Tuesday of every month at 6:30 PM in the Beek Center and all Island residents are welcome to attend. If you are not already a member, join us at biia.org and click on BIIA 2024 membership. Find out more about what your Association does for you and if you are so inclined, apply to become more active and contribute your time and energy.

In November and December, we celebrate the Holiday season with the Christmas tree decorating and snow day (maybe live reindeer again). The annual Home Tour is Sunday December 8 and the Christmas Boat Parade will be December 18-22. Don't forget to visit the Balboa Island Museum, again voted the number one museum in Orange County. The exhibits are outstanding and are well worth a visit.

It's been a great year so far with lots more fun and enriching activities to come, so jump in and either join the BIIA or get involved in our many activities.

Dan Abbott
President, BIIA

I'd love to hear any thoughts you have for additional events as well..

The BIIA Board members listed below have been voted on by their peers to be recognized for outstanding volunteerism to the Balboa Island Improvement Association and making Balboa Island a better place to live. THANK YOU!

The Perfect Parade Cocktail:

Two parts Callahan, one jigger Vasterling, float a generous portion of Volunteers, Entries, Bands, and Vendors, Shake vigorously, light on fire and...STAND BACK!

Jack Callahan a.k.a. "The Coconut Man" has been the Balboa Island Parade Chairman for 10 years. From Pirates, to Cowboys, to Parrot Head themes, Jack has been a key player in bringing this annual gem to Marine Avenue. Attending dozens of meetings with volunteers, vendors, NB Police and Fire, entries, organizing the vendors, hiring the bands, meeting delivery trucks, are all part of his annual workload.

A longtime resident of Balboa Island, Jack has been BIIA President six times, and remains involved with the BIIA (Balboa Island Improvement Association) organizing the Summer Concerts in the Park, and the Tree Lighting/Snow Day with Santa. He is a perpetual volunteer, Balboa Island is lucky to have him. If you don't see Jack fixing or cleaning something up around the island, he's probably at his passion job of teaching High School for the Newport-Mesa School District.

Thank you Jack for all you do for our Island!

If you need a short description of Parade Co-Chair Gail Vasterling, a "vortex of energy" just may fit. She does the tasks that make the parade machine run. Very detailed oriented, Gail has her hands in every aspect, from the theme choice and initial planning to the after-party stage adorned with props. She's also in charge of promotion of the parade, directing graphic designers, buying media, outdoor advertising, volunteer assignments and attire to wear on parade day, to helping assign the parade participants order of march and judging their entries. Plus keeping "Coconut Jack" in line!

Gail is also very active in our Holiday Home Tour; she handles the media and outdoor advertising for it along with other things. On top of all this she works full time as a corporate recruiter for Carrington Mortgage Company in Anaheim and loves hiring people for her company and also has been involved in Rusty's Island Chips which her ex-husband Rusty started many years ago. She's also very passionate about the "Island Girl's", a group of 34 Island ladies that she helped start in 2008. All in all, Gail loves Island life and would not trade it for anything! Thanks Gail for your leadership and passion!

"It Takes a Village"

by Don Dallape

Several months ago I was asked by Terry Janssen, then president of the BIIA, to head up the "Bridge Flower Project" which was a concept to reintroduce live plants and Flowers to our Marine Ave. Bridge and surrounding areas. As a Contractor who has worked with building projects both inside and outside, I was honored to be asked. At that time I was advised that Georgie Fenton, BIIA Member and local Island Realtor would also be working with me to assist, and more importantly to help raise money for the project. I Spoke to past BIIA President, Jack Callahan and he informed me that there had not been live plants on the bridge for over 15 years since the city updated, and resurfaced the bridge.

Felix Ruiz, Don Dallape, Kevin Pekar, Tiffany Valentine

Tiffany Valentine, a local Design and Landscape Contractor, was enlisted to help with the task, and brought many exciting, and contemporary ideas that we integrated into the project. Her knowledge of the area and her past work for the BIIA on the Island made it easy for her to pick the flowers and plants that would be beautiful and more importantly durable and water saving for the project.

We enlisted the help of the City of Newport Beach through Mr. Greg Haynes, Landscape Maintenance Supervisor, and Mr.

Kevin Pekar who helped us immensely with providing the necessary information regarding the current Landscape details and then helping us to secure the services of Brightview Landscape Services, and manager Mr. Felix Ruiz who helped us reconnect and schedule watering times for the dormant Water lines that were still attached to the bridge for the last 15+ years. We contracted with Brightview and Tiffany Valentine Landscape Design to get the project underway, and continue to service the areas for the future success of the project. It took several attempts to get the water lines cleared, and once we felt that it was manageable we installed the plants in the existing pots, at the foot of the bridge, and at the entrance to the Island in front of the Yacht Club.

Tiffany had a great idea to arrange the flowers in front of the Yacht Club and in the Planter at the foot of the bridge to look like a coral reef. It turned out Amazing! We finished just in time for the Balboa Island Parade, and I am sure that all who attended saw the beautiful display of plants and flowers that our wonderful BIIA members provided for all to enjoy for years to come.

Our Association and its members are always looking for ways to beautify our wonderful homes and common areas, and I feel so fortunate every day, to be able to enjoy our little slice of paradise.

There was a Parade on the Island Sunday June 2, 2024. It just didn't happen by itself. Volunteering and Volunteers have completely different meanings. But both did it.

VOLUNTEERING: The logical start would be those who began in January, meeting to plan the event in June. The thirty plus joined together to form the Balboa Island Annual Parade Committee. They did so as volunteers of their time and talents to make it happen. There were so many integral parts by others VOLUNTEERING, that without them, what the Committee did for five months wouldn't have mattered if the other parts were not there. There were so many hidden- in- the- background of the Parade such as The Public Works Department of the City of Newport Beach, making the various street areas available for the Parade to proceed safely. They rigorously accomplished what was needed, once again without any incidents as they have in every other year of the Parade. There were two other hidden- in- the- background entities VOLUNTEERING to make it happen that were so important for the goal of bringing the 29th Annual Parade to the three to four thousand viewers crowded along the Parade Route. One of the hidden-in-the-background was The Irvine Company, volunteering once again the parking lot area in front of the Sunday closed US Bank on Bayside Drive to be used by the Committee for the check-in of the ninety-seven Parade entrants who lined up across the street on Bayside Drive. The Bank parking lot was also utilized to welcome and assign classic cars for the City Council and many other Dignitaries to ride in at the Parade. So many other functions occurred on the lot during the seven Sunday morning hours of using it that made it work and the resounding success it was. Thank you once again this year Irvine Company. I indicated there were to two hidden-in-the backgrounders who volunteered to loan their properties to help make the Parade come off. The second was Redwood West Incorporated just east of Jamboree/Marine Avenue on Bayside Drive. They provided in their parking lot space for the twenty horses and their trailers to stage before their entering the Parade progressing across the bridge along Marine Avenue to a cheering crowd welcoming them. Thank you, Redwood West Inc., for VOLUNTEERING the space once again this year.

Also, VOLUNTEERING were those who stepped up monetarily, donating once again or for the first time to defray the costs to the Balboa Island Improvement Association, sponsors of the Parade. Who they were is noted in other columns in this publication. Visible, but also backgrounders, were the Newport Beach Police Officers making the crowds feel safe throughout the event.

A super hidden VOLUNTEERING group was the many residents of Balboa Island and nearby Bayside Drive who made their street parking available for the Parade entrants to use before and after the Parade that Sunday. Thank you 100 blockers of Marine, Onyx, Amethyst and Baysiders, for your contribution to the Parade. VOLUNTEERING does not happen without VOLUNTEERS. I am proud of the volunteers of the Committee who gave up many hours to the planning, and giving many hours of their time to put up No Parking signs and distribute trash containers along the Parade Route. And then take the signs down afterward, retrieve the trash and the containers thereby returning the Parade-venued areas back to normal, as though it never happened.

This Column is supposed to be about Membership. But it is the donations toward membership that were another very important aspect of the Parade. They paid half of the cost of putting it on. Remember, the Parade didn't just happen by itself. This year, which started when the BIIA sent to last year's members and previous year members, a formal invitation was sent out to join for 2024. The 622 memberships generated this year made the Parade possible, just as those mentioned above doing their parts made it happen. BIIA Members, pat yourself on the back for making it a great experience for so many. It was a great way to kick off the summer!
